ABOUT THE INSPECTION

The purpose of this inspection is to assure government, parents and the public of the quality and standard of day care. When making judgements, inspectors have regard to how well the provider meets the National Standards for under Eights Day Care and Childminding. A list of these is attached. The report identifies strengths and areas for improvement.

This inspection report must be made available to all parents.

Information about the setting

The OOSC has been registered since 1998, it operates from a Porta Cabin within the grounds of Ecclesall Infants School which is situated in the Ecclesall area of Sheffield.

There are two play rooms available, an entrance and storage areas, the children use toilet facilities in the adjacent school, always supervised.

There are outdoor play areas.

It accommodates 35 children aged 4-8yrs, and operates during term time only on this site, after school.

There are currently 49 children on role, two of which have special needs and none who have English as an additional language.

The group currently have sole use of the porta cabin.

How good is the Day Care?

The facility provides good child care during the after school club.

Staff work well as a team and ensure that children have access to a varied range of easily accessible toys and resources which can be used effectively inside and outside, they have access to outdoor play facilities in the school yard and adjoining playing field.

They provide children and parents with the opportunity to be actively involved in decision making regarding planning and rules of the club. Good information sharing processes help to assist staff to meet the individual needs of the children, staff give high priority to nurturing their personal, social and emotional development. Behaviour within the club is generally good.

Policies and procedures are in place and readily available to parents. High emphasis is given to safety issues at all times and good health and hygiene practise is encouraged. Children are independent, confident and have regard for each other. Relationships between all are well established and they are encouraged to express their individuality freely.

Staff are committed and consistently seeking ways to improve the service.

Relationships with parents are good and effective, well informed documentation is kept and stored in a confidential manner

What has improved since the last inspection?

The club have now have use of walls to display children's art work and parental information and are using it effectively.

What is being done well?

- Children's personal, social and emotional development is very good, they are confident and eager to participate on their own or as part of group. Behaviour is generally good.
- Parental partnerships are developed, encouraged and valued which has a direct impact on children's learning.
- Children are encouraged to express themselves and use their imagination through art and design, role-play and drama. Opportunities are provided for children to explore how and why things work with support from enthusiastic staff, they ask open ended questions which stimulate the child's thought process.
- Ample opportunity is given for children to develop physical skills including games indoors if weather is too bad outside

What needs to be improved?

- OFSTED contact number needs to be added to complaint information for parents.
- Staff may benefit from food hygiene training.
