ABOUT THE INSPECTION

The purpose of this inspection is to assure government, parents and the public of the quality and standard of day care in accordance with the National Standards for Under Eights Day Care and Childminding; and that the nursery education for funded three and four year old children is of an acceptable quality. Inspection of nursery education also identifies strengths and weaknesses so that providers can improve the quality of educational provision and help children to achieve the early learning goals (elgs) by the end of the Foundation Stage. This inspection report must be made available to all parents.

If the setting has been inspected previously, an action plan will have been drawn up to tackle issues identified. This inspection, therefore, must also assess what progress has been made in the implementation of this plan.

Information about the setting

Winteringham Under 5's Group is held in the village hall in the centre of Winteringham, a rural village approximately 8 miles from Scunthorpe.

It is registered to care for 26 children aged two to five years, and operates from 9:30am until 12 noon, Monday to Friday, term time only.

There are currently 24 children on role, none of whom have special needs or English as a second language.

The group have use of a large hall and the female toilets. Kitchen facilities are available to the staff. Although no permanent outdoor area is available, use is made of a grassed and paved area, adjacent to the hall. This has temporary fencing placed around it, when used by the playgroup.

It is situated in a small village close to all local amenities.

All the staff are first aid trained and hold relevant qualifications in child care or are working towards.

The group hold Eligible provider status and are currently funded for eight three-year olds and three four year olds.

How good is the Day Care?

The Winteringham Under Fives group provide good care for children. Staff create a secure atmosphere where children can develop good attitudes and dispositions to learning.

Staff work well as a team and ensure that children have access to a varied range of easily accessible toys and resources which are used effectively to support the planning of stimulating activities.

Good information sharing processes help to assist staff to meet the individual needs of the children. Staff give high priority to nurturing their personal, social and emotional development. Behaviour within the group is very good.

All policies and procedures are in place and readily available to parents. High emphasis is given to safety issues at all times and good health and hygiene practise is encouraged.

Children are independent, confident and have regard for each other. Relationships between all are well established and children are encouraged to express their individuality freely.

Staff are committed and consistently seeking ways to improve the service, they aim to undertake a quality assurance scheme in the near future, and they regularly update all other relevant training.

Relationships with parents are good and effective, well informed documentation is kept and stored in a confidential manner

What has improved since the last inspection?

Since the last inspection staff have implemented their action plan by incorporating more simple addition and subtraction into practical every day activities.

Children are encouraged to explore sounds, recognise patterns, repetition and changes.

They have introduced more energetic play into planning and use balancing boards and other equipment inside, if the weather prevents use of outdoor play.

All policies and procedures have been recently updated and are available to parents.

What is being done well?

- Children's personal, social and emotional development is very good, they are confident and eager to participate on their own or as part of group. Behaviour is very good.
- Parental partnerships are developed, encouraged and valued which has a direct impact on children's learning. Children are encouraged to express themselves and use their imagination through art and design, role-play and music.
- Opportunities are provided for children to explore how and why things work with support from enthusiastic staff, they ask open ended questions which stimulate the child's thought process.
- Ample opportunity is given for children to develop physical skills including some outdoor activities.
- Staff consider the intended purpose of an activity to ensure the needs of all children are addressed and evaluate accordingly.

An aspect of outstanding practice:

Children are encouraged to think, use skills and judgement to develop their own self awareness and self esteem in everyday practical activities, resources and planning enable children to use their skills in order to achieve expected development within/ exceeding the stepping stones/ early learning goals necessary for their personal development.
