ABOUT THE INSPECTION

The purpose of this inspection is to assure government, parents and the public of the quality and standard of day care. When making judgements, inspectors have regard to how well the provider meets the National Standards for under Eights Day Care and Childminding. A list of these is attached. The report identifies strengths and areas for improvement.

This inspection report must be made available to all parents.

Information about the setting

All Saints Pre School opened in 1964. Ann Nash is the registered person.

It operates from the one room in a church hall, the group also has use of a large hall, and smaller room, kitchen and toilets. There is a secure safe garden available for outside play.

The group serves the church community and the local area.

The Pre-School is registered for 14 children. There are currently 20 children from 2 years to 5 years on roll. This includes 13 funded 3 year olds and 7 funded 4 year olds. Children attend for a variety of sessions. The setting currently supports a number of children with special needs, and who speak English as an additional language.

The group opens five days a week during school term times. Session times are 09:30 to 12:30.

Five staff, both full and part time work with the children, two people share the manger's post. Over half the staff have early years qualifications to NVQ level 2 and 3.

The group are members of the Pre School Learning Alliance and are accredited in their quality assessment scheme. The setting receives support from a teacher from the Early Years Development and Childcare Partnership.

How good is the Day Care?

All Saints Pre School provides good care for children.

The pre school is well staffed with staff holding relevant childcare qualifications, the manager has a commitment to further training and encouraging staff to access training.

The staff have an understanding of ensuring the children's safety both inside and outside the pre-school. Staffing levels ensure children are effectively supervised at all times.

Staff have a good understanding of health and hygiene practices within the pre-school environment to prevent the spread of infection. All staff have current first aid training, and food hygiene certificates.

Plans ensure children have opportunities to access a range of resources and play equipment that are stimulating and fun. The range of activities provided offer an appropriate level of challenge to children and encourage independence. Effective procedures are in place to ensure the individual needs of the child are recorded and met.

Staff are focussed and interested in working directly with the children. Positive interaction with children is evident throughout the setting.

Policies and procedures are thorough, and consistently applied throughout the setting.

A range of resources and activities are provided to promote positive images of culture, gender, religion and disability.

Manager and staff have a positive attitude to caring for children with special needs.

Manager and staff are consistent when managing children's behaviour, all children are praised. Parents are included in issues regarding behaviour management.

Parents receive good information about the setting and their children progress. They are actively encouraged to take part in pre-school activities.

What has improved since the last inspection?

At the last inspection the provider agreed to ensure low level glass was safe, this has been done, ensuring children cannot be harmed by low level windows.

All appliances within the setting have safety checks in place, appliances are used and maintained appropriately.

The provider agreed to make staff aware of local ACPC procedures, staff have received training and are aware of local procedures.

Daily registers are accurate, recording arrival and departure times of children, staff and visitors, ensuring children are safe and protected and all times.

What is being done well?

- Staff plan and evaluate activities that are stimulating, fun and suitable for the various ages in the setting.
- Children are happy and confident in the setting.
- Hygiene practices in place prevent the spread of infection.

- Parents are included and encouraged to be part of pre school life.
- The behaviour policy is appropriate for the ages in the setting, staff are consistent with children giving lots of praise.

What needs to be improved?

- The PIC stated that she and her staff will continue to access all available training to improve their knowledge and qualifications within the childcare field.
