ABOUT THE INSPECTION

The purpose of this inspection is to assure government, parents and the public of the quality and standard of day care. When making judgements, inspectors have regard to how well the provider meets the National Standards for under Eights Day Care and Childminding. A list of these is attached. The report identifies strengths and areas for improvement.

This inspection report must be made available to all parents.

Information about the setting

Hare Hatch Montessori Nursery School is a private nursery school, which promotes both the Montessori method of teaching and the Foundation Stage. The nursery school opened in 1995 and uses Hare Hatch village hall. Pupils are mainly from Hare Hatch and surrounding villages although there are children who travel from Maidenhead and Reading.

The nursery accepts children between the ages of two and a half and eight years old. There are currently 47 children on roll, of whom 14 three-year-olds and 18 four-year-olds are in receipt of nursery education funding. Children may attend for a variety of sessions. The nursery supports a small number of children with special educational needs and for whom English is an additional language.

The nursery is open on weekdays between 09.00 and 15.00 during term time only. There are eight members of staff, seven of whom have appropriate qualifications.

How good is the Day Care?

Hare Hatch Montessori Nursery provides good quality care for children. The setting is efficiently organised and benefits from good leadership by an experienced and well-qualified manager. Staff feel supported in their work and are encouraged to attend training to develop their skills. The team work well together to ensure the smooth running of the daily routine. All areas of documentation are well organised and complete. A stimulating learning environment is created with good use being made of the available space, including the garden area. The resources being used by the children are of high quality and support their learning across all areas. The premises are kept clean and well maintained.

Apart from one aspect the staff pay careful attention to maintaining the health and safety of the children. Risk assessments are used to identify potential hazards and staff address issues, for example improving safety in the garden. Staff liaise well with parents and undertake extra training in first aid to meet children's individual needs. The children access food and drinks as they need them during the session and they display good levels of independence in managing this task. The staff are vigilant about issues concerned with child protection and they are secure in their knowledge of the correct procedures.

There is good support to all areas of children's development. The staff provide gentle encouragement and suggestions, though the children have many opportunities to make their own choices. Good records of children's development are maintained and individual children are brought on at their own pace. Staff share ideas about how to develop a child's learning. This careful support is extended to children with special educational needs. Staff manage the children's behaviour well.

The partnership with parents is good and staff spend time with new families offering support and reassurance. Parents appreciate the caring and flexible approach of the staff.

What has improved since the last inspection?

Not applicable.

What is being done well?

- Staff interact very well with the children. They are adept at stepping in where needed, to extend children's learning, for example encouraging the completion of a block building game. Care is shown towards new children who need extra support when settling in to the nursery.
- Staff act as good role models to the children, emphasising respect for others and good manners. The children respond well to this gentle encouragement and this is reflected in the calm environment of the nursery.
- There is a positive approach in the nursery to developing children's understanding and appreciation of different cultures. The resources and input from staff and parents provide the children with positive images of the wider world.

An aspect of outstanding practice:

Good use is made of the garden area to extend learning. The children not only use it to enjoy physical activities, but also to take part in gardening or to enjoy a quiet moment in the sensory area. An awareness of nature is encouraged with boxes for nesting animals or insects along with areas for bird feeding.

What needs to be improved?

- the establishment of good hygiene routines with the children before they eat snacks.
