Having considered all the evidence, the inspector is of the opinion that at this time the setting is making satisfactory improvement overall.

Overall effectiveness of the improvement and outcomes for children

At the monitoring visit on 28 October 2013 the Welfare Requirement Notice has been met. Procedures are in place to make sure all adults working with children are vetted. Records are kept of staff qualifications, identity checks and vetting processes that have been completed, including the criminal records check.

Staff are working towards meeting the Notice to improve. Parents are encouraged to take part in their children's learning by attending formal or informal meetings or activities. They are provided with information about how staff promote their children's learning and development and the details that are available to them in their child's assessment records. They are beginning to provide relevant details about their child's progress which informs planning for the next steps in their learning. Parents are encouraged to complete feedback forms to comment on the provision. Staff suggest activities for parents to continue at home to extend their child's learning and development and there are sessions available that parents can attend to support them with this. During the visit parents and children were warmly welcomed into the setting. Staff show an interest in the family and exchange relevant information to support the care of the children.

The safeguarding policy and procedures have been updated including information to cover the use of mobile phones and cameras to safeguard children. Staff adhere to this by not using mobile phones whilst working with the children. Parents give consent to photographs to record the activities their children take part in. Health and hygiene practices are promoted. Children wash their hands at appropriate times to help prevent the spread of infection.

A system has been devised to offer support, training and supervision of staff. This includes regular one to one meetings to monitor their progress, observe their practice with the children, checking that the information in children's records is up to date and organising relevant training. The local authority are currently supporting staff with this in the nursery. During the visit staff did not always respond to children's emerging needs and interests through purposeful or positive interaction. This will be monitored at the next visit when the actions to be met by the 18 November 2013 are checked.

Having considered all the evidence the inspector is of the opinion that at this time:

- The setting has made satisfactory progress in addressing the points for improvement. The next visit will be a further monitoring visit.
