Summary of key findings for parents

The provision meets requirements

- The childminder demonstrates that she provides suitable activities to support children to progress across all areas of learning.
- The childminder demonstrates that she plans a range of activities, ensuring a balance of child-initiated and adult-led experiences.
- The childminder offers a suitable range of interesting resources for children. She promotes children's decision-making skills by providing them with access to all areas of the learning environment.
- The childminder monitors her provision effectively and assesses areas for development. She attends further training to develop her knowledge, which benefits the children.
- The childminder demonstrates how she promotes positive behaviour in children, and works with parents and other agencies to support children with challenging behaviour.
- The childminder promotes children's health and well-being by offering balanced meals and regular exercise. This also promotes their physical development.
- The childminder has clear and concise safeguarding policies and procedures in place and follows these to safeguard children.
- The childminder understands the importance of supervising children in order to keep them safe.

There were no children present when this inspection took place. The findings in this report are based on evidence gathered from discussions with those who care for the children and an inspection of the premises, equipment and relevant documentation. Where there are no children present, no judgement is made on the quality of the early years provision as there is no reliable evidence on which to assess its impact on children. The report states whether the provider continues to meet the requirements of registration.

Inspection activities

- The inspector spoke with the childminder to gain information about her practice and the service she provides.
- The inspector sought the views of parents by reviewing their comments in relevant documentation.
- The inspector looked at children's observations, planning documents, a selection of policies and procedures and children's records.

The childminder registered in 2006. She lives with her husband and two school-age children in Bermondsey, in Southwark. The downstairs of the house is the main area used for childminding. There is a fully enclosed garden for outdoor play. The family has two dogs. The childminder is registered on the Early Years Register and both the compulsory and voluntary parts of the Childcare Register. There are currently four children on roll, of which three are in the early years age range. The childminder holds a relevant qualification at level 3 and is a qualified assessor. There were no children present at the time of the inspection.

This inspection was carried out by Ofsted under sections 49 and 50 of the Childcare Act 2006 on the quality and standards of provision that is registered on the Early Years Register. The registered person must ensure that this provision complies with the statutory framework for children's learning, development and care, known as the Early Years Foundation Stage.

Any complaints about the inspection or the report should be made following the procedures set out in the guidance 'Complaints procedure: raising concerns and making complaints about Ofsted', which is available from Ofsted's website: www.gov.uk/government/organisations/ofsted. If you would like Ofsted to send you a copy of the guidance, please telephone 0300 123 4234, or email enquiries@ofsted.gov.uk.

The Office for Standards in Education, Children's Services and Skills (Ofsted) regulates and inspects to achieve excellence in the care of children and young people, and in education and skills for learners of all ages. It regulates and inspects childcare and children's social care, and inspects the Children and Family Court Advisory Support Service (Cafcass), schools, colleges, initial teacher training, work-based learning and skills training, adult and community learning, and education and training in prisons and other secure establishments. It assesses council children's services, and inspects services for looked after children, safeguarding and child protection.
