	Previous inspection:	Satisfactory	3
The setting meets legal requirements for early years settings

Summary of key findings for parents

The provision meets requirements

- The childminder understands the procedures to follow if she has any concerns about a child being at risk of harm.
- The childminder carries out regular risk assessments to promote children's safety within the home and on outings. All toys and equipment are appropriate for purpose.
- The childminder demonstrates how she observes and record children's achievements and uses her notes to plan activities to support children's learning.
- The childminder understands how to promote children's good health through the use of daily cleaning routines and offering children nutritious snacks and daily exercise.
- The childminder understands the importance of working in partnership with parents and other providers to meet children's needs, and to promote continuity of care and learning.
- The childminder has capacity to improve her service as she has addressed previous recommendations, attends training and evaluates her practice.

There were no children present when this inspection took place. The findings in this report are based on evidence gathered from discussions with those who care for the children and an inspection of the premises, equipment and relevant documentation. Where there are no children present, no judgement is made on the quality of the early years provision as there is no reliable evidence on which to assess its impact on children. The report states whether the provider continues to meet the requirements of registration.

Inspection activities

- The inspector had discussions with the childminder.
- The inspector viewed the toys and equipment for children.
- The inspector read the parents' completed questionnaires.

The childminder was registered in December 2005. She lives with her husband and their three children in Shadwell, in the London Borough of Tower Hamlets. The whole of the ground floor is used for childminding purposes. There is a secure garden for outdoor play. The childminder is registered on the Early Years Register, and both the compulsory and voluntary parts of the Childcare Register. No children of early years age were present at the time of the inspection.

This inspection was carried out by Ofsted under sections 49 and 50 of the Childcare Act 2006 on the quality and standards of provision that is registered on the Early Years Register. The registered person must ensure that this provision complies with the statutory framework for children's learning, development and care, known as the Early Years Foundation Stage.

Any complaints about the inspection or the report should be made following the procedures set out in the guidance 'Complaints procedure: raising concerns and making complaints about Ofsted', which is available from Ofsted's website: www.gov.uk/government/organisations/ofsted. If you would like Ofsted to send you a copy of the guidance, please telephone 0300 123 4234, or email enquiries@ofsted.gov.uk.

The Office for Standards in Education, Children's Services and Skills (Ofsted) regulates and inspects to achieve excellence in the care of children and young people, and in education and skills for learners of all ages. It regulates and inspects childcare and children's social care, and inspects the Children and Family Court Advisory Support Service (Cafcass), schools, colleges, initial teacher training, work-based learning and skills training, adult and community learning, and education and training in prisons and other secure establishments. It assesses council children's services, and inspects services for looked after children, safeguarding and child protection.
