The quality and standards of the early years provision	This inspection:	Met
	Previous inspection:	Satisfactory	3
The setting meets legal requirements for early years settings

Summary of key findings for parents

The provision meets requirements

- The childminder has a good knowledge of child development and how to extend children's learning and help them make progress.
- The childminder demonstrates that she knows how to work in close partnership with parents. She understands that this will promote a positive, shared approach to children's learning and development.
- The childminder has a good understanding of behaviour management and the importance of teaching children about boundaries.
- The childminder plans to seek information from parents, which will help her to provide an environment that helps children to feel safe and secure.
- The childminder demonstrates a good understanding of how to safeguard children and has suitable policies and procedures to help her to protect them from harm.
- The childminder understands the importance of evaluating her provision in order to provide a service that meets the needs of children and their families.

There were no children present when this inspection took place. The findings in this report are based on evidence gathered from discussions with those who care for the children and an inspection of the premises, equipment and relevant documentation. Where there are no children present, no judgement is made on the quality of the early years provision as there is no reliable evidence on which to assess its impact on children. The report states whether the provider continues to meet the requirements of registration.

Inspection activities

- The inspector viewed the resources and activities available for children indoors and outside.
- The inspector looked at the childminder's system for observation, assessment and planning.
- The inspector discussed with the childminder how she intendeds to deliver the educational programmes for children.
- The inspector looked at policies and documents the childminder will use when she starts to care for children.
