Summary of key findings for parents

The provision meets requirements

- The provider has a secure knowledge of the Early Years Foundation Stage requirements and knows the correct procedures to follow to help safeguard children's welfare.
- The provider keeps a suitable range of resources and activities to promote children's interests and development.
- The provider understands the importance of promoting children's self-confidence, communication skills and behaviour to promote their future learning skills.
- The provider promotes children's healthy lifestyles through regular physical play activities and teaching them how to keep themselves safe.
- The provider understands how to work in partnership with parents and school staff to meet children's individual needs and emotional well-being.
- The provider maintains suitable premises and completes risk assessments to help keep children safe and secure.
- The provider completes evaluations of the setting to drive continuous improvements in the quality of children's care.
- The provider understands how to monitor and promote staff's knowledge and understanding of the Early Years Foundation Stage. As a result, staff attend ongoing training to help them promote children's welfare, health and safety.

There were no children present when this inspection took place. The findings in this report are based on evidence gathered from discussions with those who care for the children and an inspection of the premises, equipment and relevant documentation. Where there are no children present, no judgement is made on the quality of the early years provision as there is no reliable evidence on which to assess its impact on children. The report states whether the provider continues to meet the requirements of registration.

Inspection activities

- The inspector discussed the provider's knowledge of the Early Years Foundation Stage requirements.
- The inspector looked at the documents the provider will use to assess the suitability of staff, and discussed the policies.
- The inspector looked at the space in which children will be cared for and the resources they will use.
- The inspector took account of the views of parents.
