The quality and standards of the early years provision	This inspection:	Met
	Previous inspection:	Satisfactory 3
The setting meets legal requirements for early years settings

Summary of key findings for parents

The provision meets requirements

- The childminder demonstrates an understanding of the need to provide children with a good balance of resources and activities to support their learning and development.
- There is a safe and secure outdoor play area for children to use to promote their physical skills and good health.
- The childminder understands her role and responsibility in protecting and safeguarding children and promoting their welfare and well-being.
- The childminder is aware of the need to ensure she risk assesses her premises to reduce hazards to children's safety.
- The childminder has a good knowledge of the Early Years Foundation Stage requirements and displays an understanding of how to meet these.
- The childminder understands what records and documents she needs to maintain to meet requirements.

There were no children present when this inspection took place. The findings in this report are based on evidence gathered from discussions with those who care for the children and an inspection of the premises, equipment and relevant documentation. Where there are no children present, no judgement is made on the quality of the early years provision as there is no reliable evidence on which to assess its impact on children. The report states whether the provider continues to meet the requirements of registration.

Inspection activities

- The inspector held discussions with the childminder.
- The inspector sampled relevant documents.
