Summary of key findings for parents

The provision meets requirements

- The childminder understands the learning and development requirements, and the need to provide children with a suitable range of resources and activities to promote development through play for children of different ages and abilities.
- The childminder has a suitable knowledge of the procedures to follow in the event of concerns about children's welfare, and knows how to safeguard them and promote their well-being.
- The childminder understands the importance of encouraging children to adopt a healthy lifestyle through healthy eating.
- The childminder has a good understanding of developing an effective partnership with parents, which supports children's development.

There were no children present when this inspection took place. The findings in this report are based on evidence gathered from discussions with those who care for the children and an inspection of the premises, equipment and relevant documentation. Where there are no children present, no judgement is made on the quality of the early years provision as there is no reliable evidence on which to assess its impact on children. The report states whether the provider continues to meet the requirements of registration.

Inspection activities

- The inspector discussed with the childminder how she meets the learning and development requirements.
- The inspector discussed with the childminder how she intends to meet the individual needs of children and how she will deliver a suitable range of play experiences.
- The inspector sampled a range of documentation, including some policies and procedures.
- The inspector discussed with the childminder how she meets the safeguarding and welfare requirements.

This inspection was carried out by Ofsted under sections 49 and 50 of the Childcare Act 2006 on the quality and standards of provision that is registered on the Early Years Register. The registered person must ensure that this provision complies with the statutory framework for children's learning, development and care, known as the Early Years Foundation Stage.

Any complaints about the inspection or the report should be made following the procedures set out in the guidance 'Complaints procedure: raising concerns and making complaints about Ofsted', which is available from Ofsted's website: www.gov.uk/government/organisations/ofsted. If you would like Ofsted to send you a copy of the guidance, please telephone 0300 123 4234, or email enquiries@ofsted.gov.uk.

The Office for Standards in Education, Children's Services and Skills (Ofsted) regulates and inspects to achieve excellence in the care of children and young people, and in education and skills for learners of all ages. It regulates and inspects childcare and children's social care, and inspects the Children and Family Court Advisory Support Service (Cafcass), schools, colleges, initial teacher training, work-based learning and skills training, adult and community learning, and education and training in prisons and other secure establishments. It assesses council children's services, and inspects services for looked after children, safeguarding and child protection.
