Summary of key findings for parents

The provision meets requirements

- The manager knows the importance of working in partnership with parents and others involved in the children's care to promote continuity.
- The manager understands the importance of providing children with activities based on their individual interest and those that challenge their abilities and build on their confidence.
- The manager recognises the need to continuously evaluate the service. She involves parents, children and staff in this process to bring about change.
- The manager knows how to make the facilities interesting and welcoming to children. She knows to organise activities and outings to enable all children of various abilities to fully participate.
- The manager understands how to promote children's good health and well-being. Activities are organised safely, so all children take part in lots of physical activities in outdoor play and at a local swimming pool.
- The manager uses good recruitment procedures, induction training, staff supervision and briefing sessions so that staff are clear about their responsibilities.
- The manager understands the importance of staff having a secure understanding of child protection procedures. She ensures all staff attend safeguarding training so they are able to recognise and identify what action to take should they have any concerns about a child's well-being.

There were no children present when this inspection took place. The findings in this report are based on evidence gathered from discussions with those who care for the children and an inspection of the premises, equipment and relevant documentation. Where there are no children present, no judgement is made on the quality of the early years provision as there is no reliable evidence on which to assess its impact on children. The report states whether the provider continues to meet the requirements of registration.

Inspection activities

- The inspector observed the indoor and outdoor areas used by the children.
- The inspector held discussions with the manager and staff.
- The inspector looked at relevant documentation and checked evidence of staff suitability and qualifications.
- The inspector took account of the views of parents' spoken to on the day of inspection and sampled a range of parental questionnaires.

Home and Community Support Services registered in 2011 and operates from The Moor Lane Community Centre in Chessington, Surrey. There are six staff working directly with the children and additional staff as and when required. All staff hold recognised qualifications at level 3. There were no children present in the early years age range at the time of the inspection.

This inspection was carried out by Ofsted under sections 49 and 50 of the Childcare Act 2006 on the quality and standards of provision that is registered on the Early Years Register. The registered person must ensure that this provision complies with the statutory framework for children's learning, development and care, known as the Early Years Foundation Stage.

Any complaints about the inspection or the report should be made following the procedures set out in the guidance 'Complaints procedure: raising concerns and making complaints about Ofsted', which is available from Ofsted's website: www.gov.uk/government/organisations/ofsted. If you would like Ofsted to send you a copy of the guidance, please telephone 0300 123 4234, or email enquiries@ofsted.gov.uk.

The Office for Standards in Education, Children's Services and Skills (Ofsted) regulates and inspects to achieve excellence in the care of children and young people, and in education and skills for learners of all ages. It regulates and inspects childcare and children's social care, and inspects the Children and Family Court Advisory Support Service (Cafcass), schools, colleges, initial teacher training, work-based learning and skills training, adult and community learning, and education and training in prisons and other secure establishments. It assesses council children's services, and inspects services for looked after children, safeguarding and child protection.
