Summary of key findings for parents

The provision meets requirements

- The provider has a good understanding of the Early Years Foundation Stage requirements. She knows how to promote children's care and education, and how to maintain a safe environment.
- The provider ensures all staff have a good understanding of safeguarding procedures. This includes identifying concerns and knowing who to refer these to. All staff have completed up-to-date safeguarding training to maintain children's welfare.
- The provider encourages staff to develop professionally and has met previous recommendation's to drive improvement. All staff take part in regular supervisions and team meetings. The well-qualified staff improve outcomes for children.
- The provider monitors and assesses staff and children to ensure children's individual needs are met effectively. She reviews all children's profiles to ensure a range of good learning opportunities are available.
- Staff establish close and trusting relationship with parents. Staff provide individual care to each child. They obtain, share and develop goals for development for each child with their parents.
- The provider effectively promotes diversity. Each child has a tailored learning plan that includes meeting their individual medical and care needs. She provides resources reflecting the wider world and staff celebrate a range of festivals with children.

There were no children present when this inspection took place. The findings in this report are based on evidence gathered from discussions with those who care for the children and an inspection of the premises, equipment and relevant documentation. Where there are no children present, no judgement is made on the quality of the early years provision as there is no reliable evidence on which to assess its impact on children. The report states whether the provider continues to meet the requirements of registration.

Inspection activities

- The inspector discussed with the provider her knowledge of the Early Years Foundation Stage requirements.
- The inspector checked the areas of the provision used for the children.
- The inspector viewed some of the provider's documentation including, training certificates, staff and children's records and policies.
