Summary of key findings for parents

The provision meets requirements

- Staff demonstrate a good understanding of their responsibilities for in relation to child protection and in supporting children's safety.
- There are effective procedures in place for the recruitment, induction, supervision and training of staff. This helps to ensure that staff are suitable for their roles.
- Staff have a good understanding of the Early years Foundation Stage. They adhere to the policies, procedures and risk assessments in order to promote children's safety, health and well-being.
- Staff reflect and evaluate well. They are proactive in assessing how to promote their continuous improvement. They take on board the views of children and parents.
- Staff promote positive partnerships with parents. They value the contribution parents make in respect of supporting how staff get to know the children. As a result, staff understand children's needs very well.
- There are excellent partnerships with the Head of school and teachers. School staff acknowledge the support children receive, in nurturing their children in readiness for the school day and between home and school.
- Staff are good role models to children. They value children's individuality and help children to respect one another.
- Staff provide a broad range of toys and resources. Their topics complement what children are learning at school.
- Staff support children's independence and confidence through their interactions. This promotes children's readiness for the next stage of their learning.
- Children benefit from regular outdoor play experiences, and therefore, plenty of fresh air and physical exercise.

There were no children present when this inspection took place. The findings in this report are based on evidence gathered from discussions with those who care for the children and an inspection of the premises, equipment and relevant documentation. Where there are no children present, no judgement is made on the quality of the early years provision as there is no reliable evidence on which to assess its impact on children. The report states whether the provider continues to meet the requirements of registration.

St. John Fisher before and after school club registered in 2009. It is owned by Special Treasures Childcare Ltd and is a Christian organisation. The club operates from within St. John Fisher Primary School, in the borough of Ealing. Children attending this school and one other local school use the out of school provision. The club operates weekdays, during term time only. Breakfast club starts at 8am until the school day, and the after school provision from 3pm to 6pm. All of the three regular staff employed hold a recognised childcare qualification. On the day of the inspection, there were no children present in the early years age range.

This inspection was carried out by Ofsted under sections 49 and 50 of the Childcare Act 2006 on the quality and standards of provision that is registered on the Early Years Register. The registered person must ensure that this provision complies with the statutory framework for children's learning, development and care, known as the Early Years Foundation Stage.

Any complaints about the inspection or the report should be made following the procedures set out in the guidance 'Complaints procedure: raising concerns and making complaints about Ofsted', which is available from Ofsted's website: www.gov.uk/government/organisations/ofsted.
