

Childminder Report

Inspection date	12 October 2015
Previous inspection date	1 June 2011

The quality and standards of the early years provision	This inspection:	Met
	Previous inspection:	Good	2

Summary of key findings for parents

The provision meets requirements

- The childminder has a suitable understanding of the learning and development requirements. He understands how to assess children's development to promote all areas of learning.
- The childminder understands his role in supporting children's safety. He has a suitable environment for childminding and understands the safeguarding and welfare requirements. The childminder is aware of his role to support children's health and well-being. He understands the need to provide children with a healthy diet and ensure children have regular opportunities for fresh air and exercise.
- The childminder has an appropriate range of toys and resources that offer challenge and support to children in all areas of their development.
- The childminder understands how to encourage children's positive behaviour, to help them be kind to others, value others' differences and learn to share.
- The childminder understands how to maintain professional relationships with parents, to promote continuity. He understands the importance of evaluating his practice and is committed to his ongoing professional development to benefit children.

There were no children present when this inspection took place. The findings in this report are based on evidence gathered from discussions with those who care for the children and an inspection of the premises, equipment and relevant documentation. Where there are no children present, no judgement is made on the quality of the early years provision as there is no reliable evidence on which to assess its impact on children. The report states whether the provider continues to meet the requirements of registration.
