The quality and standards of the early years provision	This inspection:	Met
	Previous inspection:	Good	2

Summary of key findings for parents

The provision meets requirements

- The childminder understands the learning and development requirements. She knows the need to assess children at age two years, and to plan for children's learning to help them be ready for school.
- The childminder meets the safeguarding and welfare requirements. She knows her responsibility to promote children's safety and well-being, and to protect them from harm. She knows the procedures to follow should she need to make a child protection referral.
- The childminder understands the need to work in partnership with parents. She understands the importance of communicating with them well to support children's learning and development.
- The childminder knows the importance of evaluating her practice and identifying areas for improvement. She recognises the need to keep her training and knowledge up to date to help her to improve her provision, and the outcomes for children.
- The childminder understands the importance of providing activities and resources to meet the needs of children with different ages, abilities and backgrounds. She knows the need to manage children's behaviour consistently and to help them respect others.

There were no children present when this inspection took place. The findings in this report are based on evidence gathered from discussions with those who care for the children and an inspection of the premises, equipment and relevant documentation. Where there are no children present, no judgement is made on the quality of the early years provision as there is no reliable evidence on which to assess its impact on children. The report states whether the provider continues to meet the requirements of registration.
