Inspection date	21 December 2015
Previous inspection date	31 May 2012

The quality and standards of the early years provision	This inspection:	Met
	Previous inspection:	Met

Summary of key findings for parents

The provision meets requirements

- The childminder understands her duty to safeguard children and protect them from harm. She has a safeguarding procedure and knows how to refer concerns.
- The childminder understands the learning and development requirements of the Early Years Foundation Stage. The childminder knows how to monitor and assess children's learning to support children to make progress.
- The childminder understands the importance of working in partnership with parents to provide continuity of care for children.
- The childminder holds a paediatric first-aid qualification and has a good understanding of meeting children's needs in the event of an emergency or accident.
- The childminder understands the importance of teaching children to learn to respect and value other people's opinions.
- The childminder understands the importance of providing children with exercise and a healthy diet, including meeting their dietary needs.
- The childminder's home is suitable for children's care. She offers a broad range of resources to support children's learning and development.

There were no children present when this inspection took place. The findings in this report are based on evidence gathered from discussions with those who care for the children and an inspection of the premises, equipment and relevant documentation. Where there are no children present, no judgement is made on the quality of the early years provision as there is no reliable evidence on which to assess its impact on children. The report states whether the provider continues to meet the requirements of registration.

Inspection activities

- The inspector checked the suitability of the rooms and the outside play area that will be used for childminding.
- The inspector looked at a selection of the records and policies and procedures that the childminder intends to use when caring for children.
- The inspector discussed with the childminder how she intends to deliver the educational programmes and evaluate her practice.
- The inspector checked evidence of the suitability of the childminder and those in her household.
