

Childminder Report

Inspection date	23 December 2015
Previous inspection date	16 April 2010

The quality and standards of the early years provision	This inspection:	Met
	Previous inspection:	Good	2

Summary of key findings for parents

The provision meets requirements

- The childminder understands the learning and development requirements. She is well-trained, knowledgeable and experienced in caring for children. She knows how to provide appropriate challenge to children to enable them to make progress in all areas of learning.
- The childminder's home is warm and welcoming. She understands the importance of ensuring the environment is safe, clean and risk free. Resources provide variety and challenge.
- The childminder knows how to promote children's good health and has arrangements to provide daily opportunities for fresh air and physical exercise.
- The childminder understands how to safeguard children and promote their safety and welfare. She understands the signs that would cause her concern and knows how to report any concerns that may arise. The childminder maintains an appropriate range of policies and procedures to underpin her practices, which she shares with parents.
- The childminder understands how to ensure that children develop positive values that enable them to behave well and respect others.
- The childminder understands the importance of continuous development and effectively evaluates her practice to identify areas for improvement.

There were no children present when this inspection took place. The findings in this report are based on evidence gathered from discussions with those who care for the children and an inspection of the premises, equipment and relevant documentation. Where there are no children present, no judgement is made on the quality of the early years provision as there is no reliable evidence on which to assess its impact on children. The report states whether the provider continues to meet the requirements of registration.

Inspection activities

- The inspector and the childminder looked at areas of the premises that are to be used by children.
