

Childminder Report

Inspection date	16 February 2016
Previous inspection date	11 November 2011

The quality and standards of the early years provision	This inspection:	Met
	Previous inspection:	Good	2

Summary of key findings for parents

The provision meets requirements

- The childminder understands how to support and extend children's learning through their play and activities to help them take the next step in their learning.
- The childminder understands how to support children's social skills. She recognises the need to help children learn how to take turns and be respectful to each other.
- The childminder understands what steps she must take to safeguard children's welfare if she has any child protection concerns.
- The childminder recognises the importance of partnership working with parents and other providers to promote continuity in children's care and learning.
- The childminder understands the need to provide children with toys and experiences that suit their individual learning needs and interests.
- The childminder recognises the importance of self-evaluation and reflection to identify areas for development to continually improve her service.

There were no children present when this inspection took place. The findings in this report are based on evidence gathered from discussions with those who care for the children and an inspection of the premises, equipment and relevant documentation. Where there are no children present, no judgement is made on the quality of the early years provision as there is no reliable evidence on which to assess its impact on children. The report states whether the provider continues to meet the requirements of registration.

Inspection activities

- The inspector observed activities in the childminder's home.
- The inspector spoke to the childminder at appropriate times during the inspection.
- The inspector looked at children's records, planning documentation and a sample of other documentation, including policies and procedures.
- The inspector took account of the childminder's self-evaluation and written feedback from parents.

The childminder registered in 1990. She lives in the London Borough of Wandsworth. The childminder is available to provide care for children Monday to Friday all year around. There were no early years children on roll at the time of this inspection.

This inspection was carried out by Ofsted under sections 49 and 50 of the Childcare Act 2006 on the quality and standards of provision that is registered on the Early Years Register. The registered person must ensure that this provision complies with the statutory framework for children's learning, development and care, known as the Early Years Foundation Stage.

Any complaints about the inspection or the report should be made following the procedures set out in the guidance 'Complaints procedure: raising concerns and making complaints about Ofsted', which is available from Ofsted's website: www.gov.uk/government/organisations/ofsted. If you would like Ofsted to send you a copy of the guidance, please telephone 0300 123 4234, or email enquiries@ofsted.gov.uk.

The Office for Standards in Education, Children's Services and Skills (Ofsted) regulates and inspects to achieve excellence in the care of children and young people, and in education and skills for learners of all ages. It regulates and inspects childcare and children's social care, and inspects the Children and Family Court Advisory Support Service (Cafcass), schools, colleges, initial teacher training, work-based learning and skills training, adult and community learning, and education and training in prisons and other secure establishments. It assesses council children's services, and inspects services for looked after children, safeguarding and child protection.
