Summary of key findings for parents

The provision meets requirements

- The childminder has completed an early years qualification since her last inspection and enhanced her knowledge of how children learn.
- The childminder has a suitable range of toys and play equipment to help her meet children's learning needs and interests. She knows how to plan activities and experiences to help children make good progress, in partnership with parents.
- The childminder understands safeguarding issues and how to keep children safe in her care. She has completed training to ensure she knows the most recent procedures to follow if she has concerns for a child's welfare.
- The childminder understands her role and responsibility to meet requirements. She ensures she is well informed about changes that affect her childminding provision.
- The childminder continues to evaluate her knowledge and skills, and look for ways to improve outcomes for children.
- The childminder understands how to manage children's behaviour to help them gain an understanding of right and wrong.

There were no children present when this inspection took place. The findings in this report are based on evidence gathered from discussions with those who care for the children and an inspection of the premises, equipment and relevant documentation. Where there are no children present, no judgement is made on the quality of the early years provision as there is no reliable evidence on which to assess its impact on children. The report states whether the provider continues to meet the requirements of registration.
