Summary of key findings for parents

The provision meets requirements

- The childminder understands safeguarding and knows the procedures to record and report concerns about children's welfare.
- The childminder reflects and evaluates her practice, in order to improve the provision and children's outcomes.
- The childminder understands how to form close relationships with children and families. She recognises the importance of sharing regular information about children's care and learning.
- The childminder knows how to provide children with a range of resources to meet their interests and needs, in order to help them make progress with their learning and development.
- The childminder is aware of ways to promote positive attitudes and good behaviour, in order for children to learn right from wrong.

There were no children present when this inspection took place. The findings in this report are based on evidence gathered from discussions with those who care for the children and an inspection of the premises, equipment and relevant documentation. Where there are no children present, no judgement is made on the quality of the early years provision as there is no reliable evidence on which to assess its impact on children. The report states whether the provider continues to meet the requirements of registration.

Inspection activities

- The inspector discussed with the childminder how she intends to provide activities and experiences that promote children's learning.
- The inspector looked at the childminder's policies and documents that she intends to use when caring for children.
- The inspector discussed with the childminder her processes for self-evaluation and her improvement plan.
- The inspector viewed resources and toured the areas of the childminder's home that she intends to use for children.
