Inspection date	31 March 2016
Previous inspection date	5 June 2014

The quality and standards of the early years provision	This inspection:	Met
	Previous inspection:	Requires Improvement	3

Summary of key findings for parents

The provision meets requirements

- The manager has a sound knowledge and understanding of how to provide children with interesting and exciting activities.
- The manager demonstrates her understanding of the importance of gathering information from parents and children's teachers, in order to support children's individual needs.
- The manager and staff have a sound knowledge of child protection procedures. They understand their responsibility to protect the welfare of all children in their care.
- The manager demonstrates an understanding of how to ensure the environment is warm and welcoming. She intends that children are well supervised at all times. All staff and committee members have been appropriately vetted.
- The manager offers a suitable selection of resources and equipment that children are able to freely access.
- The manager is able to demonstrate how she will observe and monitor children's learning. She has plans and documentation in place to share information about children's development with their parents.
- The manager works closely with the committee chairperson, parents and children to ensure that self-evaluation of the club is inclusive.

There were no children present when this inspection took place. The findings in this report are based on evidence gathered from discussions with those who care for the children and an inspection of the premises, equipment and relevant documentation. Where there are no children present, no judgement is made on the quality of the early years provision as there is no reliable evidence on which to assess its impact on children. The report states whether the provider continues to meet the requirements of registration.

Inspection activities

- The inspector observed areas of the school used when caring for children.
- The inspector looked at suitability checks, policies, procedures and documents used when caring for children.
- The inspector had in-depth discussions with the manager. These related to her knowledge and understanding of the requirements for safeguarding and welfare, as well as learning and development.

Milton School Care Club was registered in 2001. It operates within Milton Primary School, Stoke. It is open Monday to Friday from 7.30am to 8.50am and 3.15pm to 5.45pm, during school term time. A holiday club operates from 8am to 4.30pm during main school holidays by prior arrangement. The setting employs four members of staff. Of these, all hold an early years qualification at level 3 and above.

This inspection was carried out by Ofsted under sections 49 and 50 of the Childcare Act 2006 on the quality and standards of provision that is registered on the Early Years Register. The registered person must ensure that this provision complies with the statutory framework for children's learning, development and care, known as the Early Years Foundation Stage.

Any complaints about the inspection or the report should be made following the procedures set out in the guidance 'Complaints procedure: raising concerns and making complaints about Ofsted', which is available from Ofsted's website: www.gov.uk/government/organisations/ofsted. If you would like Ofsted to send you a copy of the guidance, please telephone 0300 123 4234, or email enquiries@ofsted.gov.uk.
