Summary of key findings for parents

The provision meets requirements

- The childminder understands her safeguarding responsibilities, including what action to take if she had any concerns about children's welfare. She attends regular training to ensure her knowledge is kept up to date.
- The childminder understands how to encourage children to lead healthy lifestyles, such as providing opportunities for fresh air and exercise, and discussing nutritious food.
- The childminder has a range of resources to support and promote children's learning and development. She understands the importance of planning activities to meet children's different needs and to help prepare them for their next stage in learning.
- The childminder plans to teach children the importance of taking turns and respecting others to promote their positive behaviour.
- The childminder understands the importance of working with parents and others who may be involved in the care of children.
- The childminder understands how to use self-evaluation to monitor and identify areas of her provision to develop and improve.

There were no children present when this inspection took place. The findings in this report are based on evidence gathered from discussions with those who care for the children and an inspection of the premises, equipment and relevant documentation. Where there are no children present, no judgement is made on the quality of the early years provision as there is no reliable evidence on which to assess its impact on children. The report states whether the provider continues to meet the requirements of registration.

Inspection activities

- The inspector and childminder discussed the requirements of the Early Years Foundation Stage.
- The inspector viewed areas of the house and garden used for childminding.
- The inspector sampled relevant documentation, including suitability checks.
