Summary of key findings for parents

The provision meets requirements

- The childminder demonstrates, through discussion, a sound knowledge of her role in safeguarding children.
- The childminder has a suitable range of toys, which are stored appropriately, for children to access independently. The childminder has experience of planning activities based on the children's interests, such as cooking, gardening and sports events.
- The childminder knows how to assess and monitor the children's progress.
- The childminder has arrangements to share observations of the children with parents. She recognises the importance of working in partnership with parents to support the care and learning needs of the children.
- The childminder, through discussion, demonstrates that she knows how to manage children's behaviour appropriately.
- The childminder understands the importance of reflecting on the quality of her service to identify any areas for improvement.

There were no children present when this inspection took place. The findings in this report are based on evidence gathered from discussions with those who care for the children and an inspection of the premises, equipment and relevant documentation. Where there are no children present, no judgement is made on the quality of the early years provision as there is no reliable evidence on which to assess its impact on children. The report states whether the provider continues to meet the requirements of registration.

Inspection activities

- The inspector looked at a selection of documents, including policies and procedures, which the childminder uses when caring for children.
- The inspector discussed with the childminder her arrangements to promote children's learning and welfare, and to share information with parents.
- The inspector toured the areas of the premises available for childminding.

The childminder registered in 1997. She lives in Ensbury Park, Bournemouth, Dorset. The childminder offers care during term times only. There were no children present in the early years age group at the time of this inspection.

This inspection was carried out by Ofsted under sections 49 and 50 of the Childcare Act 2006 on the quality and standards of provision that is registered on the Early Years Register. The registered person must ensure that this provision complies with the statutory framework for children's learning, development and care, known as the Early Years Foundation Stage.

Any complaints about the inspection or the report should be made following the procedures set out in the guidance 'Complaints procedure: raising concerns and making complaints about Ofsted', which is available from Ofsted's website: www.gov.uk/government/organisations/ofsted. If you would like Ofsted to send you a copy of the guidance, please telephone 0300 123 4234, or email enquiries@ofsted.gov.uk.

The Office for Standards in Education, Children's Services and Skills (Ofsted) regulates and inspects to achieve excellence in the care of children and young people, and in education and skills for learners of all ages. It regulates and inspects childcare and children's social care, and inspects the Children and Family Court Advisory Support Service (Cafcass), schools, colleges, initial teacher training, work-based learning and skills training, adult and community learning, and education and training in prisons and other secure establishments. It assesses council children's services, and inspects services for looked after children, safeguarding and child protection.
