Summary of key findings for parents

The provision meets requirements

- The provider understands the importance of having robust recruitment procedures to ensure staff have the necessary skills to undertake their role.
- The provider is able to identify safeguarding concerns and procedures to follow, to protect children's welfare.
- The provider demonstrates the importance of providing an environment that is free from hazards, so that children can play and explore safely indoors and outside.
- The provider is able to evaluate the provision to identify areas of development to ensure continuous improvement.
- The provider is aware of how working with parents benefits children and supports staff to promote consistency in children's care and learning.
- The provider knows how to manage children's behaviour positively and ensure staff understand how to help children learn responsibility and respect.
- The provider understands her role in ensuring staff have the skills to provide stimulating activities using children's interests and stage of development.

There were no children present when this inspection took place. The findings in this report are based on evidence gathered from discussions with those who care for the children and an inspection of the premises, equipment and relevant documentation. Where there are no children present, no judgement is made on the quality of the early years provision as there is no reliable evidence on which to assess its impact on children. The report states whether the provider continues to meet the requirements of registration.

Inspection activities

- The inspector held discussions with the manager and the nominated person about the safeguarding and welfare requirements.
- The inspector discussed with the manager and nominated person how the provision provides learning experiences for children.
- The inspector sampled a range of documentation, including policies, confirmation of staff suitability and risk assessments.
