Summary of key findings for parents

The provision meets requirements

- The childminder has clear procedures to follow should she have any safeguarding concerns about children's welfare.
- The childminder understands how to observe and assess children's learning, and plan for their individual needs to help them make good progress.
- The childminder understands the importance of promoting children's physical health and well-being, such as through healthy eating and developing their independence skills.
- The childminder recognises the importance of working in partnership with parents and other agencies to share information and promote continuity.
- The childminder understands how to complete risk assessments to ensure her premises are welcoming and safe for children. She knows how to manage children's behaviour and the importance of teaching children to respect others.
- The childminder knows how to evaluate her practice and use the views of parents and children to help her decide on priorities for improvement, to improve practice.

There were no children present when this inspection took place. The findings in this report are based on evidence gathered from discussions with those who care for the children and an inspection of the premises, equipment and relevant documentation. Where there are no children present, no judgement is made on the quality of the early years provision as there is no reliable evidence on which to assess its impact on children. The report states whether the provider continues to meet the requirements of registration.

Inspection activities

- The inspector viewed the areas to be used when childminding.
- The inspector discussed with the childminder how she intends to observe, assess, and plan for children's learning.
- The inspector viewed a sampled of documents, including the childminder's policies and procedures, risk assessments, suitability checks and her paediatric first aid certificate.
- The inspector discussed with the childminder how she evaluates and reflects on her practice.
