

Childminder Report

Inspection date	10 May 2016
Previous inspection date	2 April 2012

The quality and standards of the early years provision	This inspection:	Met
	Previous inspection:	Good	2

Summary of key findings for parents

The provision meets requirements

- The childminder knows how to use observation and assessments to monitor children's learning and help them to make progress. She understands how to provide age-appropriate experiences to help prepare children for the next stage of their learning.
- The childminder knows the importance of establishing partnerships with parents and other professionals, to provide continuity in children's care and learning.
- The childminder understands how to promote children's emotional well-being and has effective procedures to help children settle quickly.
- The childminder is aware of the need to evaluate her practice in order to identify areas for improvement.
- The childminder has a secure knowledge of child protection procedures and knows how to report any concerns to the relevant agencies. She maintains a safe and secure environment which is suitable for children.

There were no children present when this inspection took place. The findings in this report are based on evidence gathered from discussions with those who care for the children and an inspection of the premises, equipment and relevant documentation. Where there are no children present, no judgement is made on the quality of the early years provision as there is no reliable evidence on which to assess its impact on children. The report states whether the provider continues to meet the requirements of registration.

Inspection activities

- The inspector discussed with the childminder her understanding of the requirements of the Early Years Foundation stage.
- The inspector discussed with the childminder how she intends to undertake observation, assessment and planning, and provide activities and learning experiences to help children make progress.
- The inspector looked at the areas of the childminder's home available for children's use and the range of resources.
- The inspector checked evidence of the childminder's suitability and other adults living on the premises.
