

Childminder Report

Inspection date	19 May 2016
Previous inspection date	19 September 2012

The quality and standards of the early years provision	This inspection:	Met
	Previous inspection:	Satisfactory	3

Summary of key findings for parents

The provision meets requirements

- The childminder knows how to identify and report any safeguarding concerns. She understands her responsibility to help protect children's welfare.
- The childminder understands how to manage children's behaviour. She understands the importance of supporting children to gain an awareness of how others feel.
- The childminder knows how to monitor and assess children's learning to identify any gaps in their development.
- The childminder understands the importance of making good partnerships with parents and sharing information to support their children's learning and well-being.
- The childminder recognises how children can benefit from improving practice. She regularly accesses training and professional support to extend her knowledge and skills.

There were no children present when this inspection took place. The findings in this report are based on evidence gathered from discussions with those who care for the children and an inspection of the premises, equipment and relevant documentation. Where there are no children present, no judgement is made on the quality of the early years provision as there is no reliable evidence on which to assess its impact on children. The report states whether the provider continues to meet the requirements of registration.

Inspection activities

- The inspector discussed with the childminder her knowledge of safeguarding and how she ensures children's safety in her care.
- The inspector reviewed the childminder's policies, looked at children's records and checked evidence of the childminder's suitability and qualifications.
- The inspector discussed with the childminder how she intends to deliver the educational programmes for younger children and how she evaluates her practice.
- The inspector talked to the childminder about where the children play in her home and the resources available.
