Summary of key findings for parents

The provision meets requirements

- The childminder is aware of the importance of helping children to develop respect for each other and build good relationships. She knows how to support children to be independent, whilst gaining skills to help them to prepare for school.
- The childminder knows how to help safeguard children's welfare. She is aware of child protection issues and the correct procedures to follow if she has concerns. The childminder knows how to provide a safe environment for children.
- The childminder recognises the benefits of sharing information with parents and other professionals to help her meet children's individual needs.
- The childminder knows how to evaluate her provision and understands the importance of keeping up to date with changes to improve her practice.
- The childminder provides a welcoming environment that is well resourced to promote children's learning.
- The childminder knows how to assess children's play and achievements and plan a range of challenging activities according to their interests. She understands how to monitor children's progress and development.

There were no children present when this inspection took place. The findings in this report are based on evidence gathered from discussions with those who care for the children and an inspection of the premises, equipment and relevant documentation. Where there are no children present, no judgement is made on the quality of the early years provision as there is no reliable evidence on which to assess its impact on children. The report states whether the provider continues to meet the requirements of registration.

Inspection activities

- The inspector discussed the childminder's knowledge of the Early Years Foundation Stage requirements.
- The inspector discussed with the childminder how she intends to promote children's learning and development.
- The inspector looked at a range of documents, which included policies and procedures, certificates and systems for recording information.
- The inspector looked at the space available for childminding and some of the resources she will use.
