- The childminder demonstrates a suitable understanding of how to promote children's well-being and health.
- The childminder has an appropriate range of toys and resources to provide challenge and support for children's learning.
- The childminder is confident in the local child protection procedures. She has an appropriate awareness of how to refer any concerns for a child to protect their welfare.
- The childminder understands the importance of working in partnership with parents and professionals, to provide continuity in their care and education.
- The childminder has successfully addressed previous recommendations made at the last inspection. She comprehends how to evaluate her practice to drive improvements.

There were no children present when this inspection took place. The findings in this report are based on evidence gathered from discussions with those who care for the children and an inspection of the premises, equipment and relevant documentation. Where there are no children present, no judgement is made on the quality of the early years provision as there is no reliable evidence on which to assess its impact on children. The report states whether the provider continues to meet the requirements of registration.
