

Childminder Report

Inspection date	18 July 2016
Previous inspection date	20 January 2015

The quality and standards of the early years provision	This inspection:	Met	3
	Previous inspection:	Requires Improvement

Summary of key findings for parents

The provision meets requirements

- The childminder has an understanding of safeguarding and child protection. She is clear of her responsibility to provide children with a safe and secure environment.
- The childminder understands the importance of planning activities to promote children's learning and development. She is aware of her role to assess and monitor children's progress to help children move onto the next stage in their development.
- The childminder is aware of her role to help children to understand the needs of others. She recognises her role to teach children to share and take turns in their play to help them develop positive relationships.
- The childminder has a variety of play equipment. She knows the importance of arranging the resources so children can select what to play with independently.
- The childminder is aware to work with the parents to provide continuity for the children's care and development.
- The childminder recognises the importance of continuing to evaluate her childminding provision to help her develop her practice.

There were no children present when this inspection took place. The findings in this report are based on evidence gathered from discussions with those who care for the children and an inspection of the premises, equipment and relevant documentation. Where there are no children present, no judgement is made on the quality of the early years provision as there is no reliable evidence on which to assess its impact on children. The report states whether the provider continues to meet the requirements of registration.

Inspection activities

- The inspector viewed the spaces, and equipment available for use.
- The inspector talked with the childminder about her responsibilities to keep children safe and healthy, and how she plans to provide activities for children to help them make progress.
- The inspector viewed the childminder's documentation, including the required policies and procedures.
- The inspector discussed the childminder's methods for evaluating her provision.
