Summary of key findings for parents

The provision meets requirements

- The manager understands her role in keeping children safe. She knows how to recognise and report any day-to-day signs that indicate a child may be at risk of harm. As the designated safeguarding officer, the manager recognises the importance of supporting staff to develop their safeguarding knowledge, such as through training.
- Staff know how to provide a range of experiences to ensure children's enjoyment and develop their independence, confidence and self-esteem.
- Staff understand how to support children's good health and physical well-being. They know how to encourage children to behave positively.
- Staff recognise the importance of working with parents to support children's individual needs.
- Staff know how to help children to make healthy choices and be active, to promote their healthy lifestyles and physical well-being.
- The manager recognises the importance of evaluating the setting. She understands her role in monitoring and developing staff's skills to improve the club's overall quality.

There were no children present when this inspection took place. The findings in this report are based on evidence gathered from discussions with those who care for the children and an inspection of the premises, equipment and relevant documentation. Where there are no children present, no judgement is made on the quality of the early years provision as there is no reliable evidence on which to assess its impact on children. The report states whether the provider continues to meet the requirements of registration.

- The inspector viewed documentation during the inspection, such as the setting's policies and procedures, and children's registers.
