Summary of key findings for parents

The provision meets requirements

- The manager understands the importance of implementing a key-person system to help children to settle well.
- The manager understands the importance of minimising risks for children, in order to help keep them safe.
- The manager is aware of the need to evaluate her provision and identify her strengths, including how she can improve her provision and staff practice.
- The manager understands the importance of developing strong relationships with the school, other professionals and parents to help support children and meet their needs.
- The manager understands how to help children to behave well, including using appropriate strategies so they learn how to treat each other with mutual respect.
- The manager understands how to safeguard children. She knows how to identify and report any child protection concerns to protect children's welfare.

There were no children present when this inspection took place. The findings in this report are based on evidence gathered from discussions with those who care for the children and an inspection of the premises, equipment and relevant documentation. Where there are no children present, no judgement is made on the quality of the early years provision as there is no reliable evidence on which to assess its impact on children. The report states whether the provider continues to meet the requirements of registration.

Inspection activities

- The inspector observed all areas in the setting available for children to use.
- The inspector and manager discussed the safeguarding and welfare requirements.
- The inspector reviewed a sample of relevant documentation.

Inspector

Genevieve Mackenzie

Wellington After School Care Scheme registered in 1993. It operates from Wellington Primary School. The breakfast club is open from 8am to 9am and the after-school club is open from 3.20pm to 5.30pm, during term time only. The provider employs four staff, one holds a qualification at level 3 and one holds a qualification at level 2. There were no children present in the early years age range at the time of the inspection.

This inspection was carried out by Ofsted under sections 49 and 50 of the Childcare Act 2006 on the quality and standards of provision that is registered on the Early Years Register. The registered person must ensure that this provision complies with the statutory framework for children's learning, development and care, known as the early years foundation stage.

Any complaints about the inspection or the report should be made following the procedures set out in the guidance 'Complaints procedure: raising concerns and making complaints about Ofsted', which is available from Ofsted's website: www.gov.uk/government/organisations/ofsted. If you would like Ofsted to send you a copy of the guidance, please telephone 0300 123 4234, or email enquiries@ofsted.gov.uk.

The Office for Standards in Education, Children's Services and Skills (Ofsted) regulates and inspects to achieve excellence in the care of children and young people, and in education and skills for learners of all ages. It regulates and inspects childcare and children's social care, and inspects the Children and Family Court Advisory Support Service (Cafcass), schools, colleges, initial teacher training, work-based learning and skills training, adult and community learning, and education and training in prisons and other secure establishments. It assesses council children's services, and inspects services for looked after children, safeguarding and child protection.
