Summary of key findings for parents

The provision meets requirements

- The childminder has a suitable knowledge and understanding of how to safeguard children to protect their welfare. For example, she recognises the signs that indicate a child may be at risk and knows how to report her concerns to keep them safe.
- The childminder understands how to plan purposeful play experiences that take account of the individual learning needs of children.
- The childminder knows how to support children to manage their behaviour, to share, and respect and tolerate others.
- The childminder understands the importance of sharing information with parents and other professionals involved in children's care, to provide a consistent approach to their learning.
- The childminder's has a suitable range of toys and equipment to meet the needs of different aged children.

There were no children present when this inspection took place. The findings in this report are based on evidence gathered from discussions with those who care for the children and an inspection of the premises, equipment and relevant documentation. Where there are no children present, no judgement is made on the quality of the early years provision as there is no reliable evidence on which to assess its impact on children. The report states whether the provider continues to meet the requirements of registration.

Inspection activities

- The inspector looked at a sample of policies and documents that the childminder intends to use when caring for children.
- The inspector checked evidence of the childminder's suitability and her qualifications.
- The inspector discussed with the childminder how she intends to deliver the educational programmes for children.
- The inspector discussed the childminder's self-evaluation form and improvement plan.
- The inspector discussed how the childminder intends to meet the safeguarding and welfare requirements.
