Summary of key findings for parents

The provision meets requirements

- Safeguarding procedures are in place. The childminder has excellent knowledge and understanding of child protection procedures and the action she would take if concerned for a child's welfare.
- The childminder evaluates her provision and strives for continuous improvement.
- The childminder identifies training needs and is very effective in developing her skills and knowledge, such as attending relevant training courses.
- The childminder knows how to promote children's progress in learning through an effective planning process.
- The childminder seeks to include parents and carers in their children's learning.
- The childminder knows how to provide consistent behavioural expectations. For example, she supports children in dealing with their emotions by encouraging them to talk about their feelings.
- The childminder encourages children to be kind and helpful.
- The childminder shows how she prepares children for their next stage in learning.

There were no children present when this inspection took place. The findings in this report are based on evidence gathered from discussions with those who care for the children and an inspection of the premises, equipment and relevant documentation. Where there are no children present, no judgement is made on the quality of the early years provision as there is no reliable evidence on which to assess its impact on children. The report states whether the provider continues to meet the requirements of registration.

Inspection activities

- The inspector reviewed resources with the childminder in the inside and outside environments.
- The inspector read and considered some comments from parents and carers.
- The inspector discussed the effectiveness of the activities on children's learning and development.
- The inspector discussed the childminder's self-evaluation process with her.
- The inspector reviewed a sample of relevant documents.
