Summary of key findings for parents

The provision meets requirements

- The childminder has met all the actions from her previous inspection. She demonstrates a clear understanding of the early years foundation stage requirements and the Childcare Register.
- The childminder has a range of play resources to support children's learning and development. She has undertaken training to gain a better understanding of how to support children's communication skills, and to identify their next steps and provide activities to meet individual needs.
- The childminder knows how to identify child protection issues and has an increased understanding of the required records she must keep to safeguard children.
- The childminder understands the importance of managing children's behaviour positively and working closely with parents to gain consistency of practice.
- The childminder understands the importance of teaching children about how to keep safe and lead a healthy lifestyle.

There were no children present when this inspection took place. The findings in this report are based on evidence gathered from discussions with those who care for the children and an inspection of the premises, equipment and relevant documentation. Where there are no children present, no judgement is made on the quality of the early years provision as there is no reliable evidence on which to assess its impact on children. The report states whether the provider continues to meet the requirements of registration.

Inspection activities

- The inspector and childminder discussed the requirements of the early years foundation stage and the Childcare Register.
- The inspector viewed areas of the garden and home used for childminding.
- The inspector sampled relevant documentation, such as the childminder's first-aid certificate and safeguarding policy.

The childminder registered in 2004. She lives in Southampton, Hampshire. The childminder offers care from 7am to 6pm, from Monday to Friday. At the time of the inspection, there were no children on roll in the early years age range.

This inspection was carried out by Ofsted under sections 49 and 50 of the Childcare Act 2006 on the quality and standards of provision that is registered on the Early Years Register. The registered person must ensure that this provision complies with the statutory framework for children's learning, development and care, known as the early years foundation stage.

Any complaints about the inspection or the report should be made following the procedures set out in the guidance 'Complaints procedure: raising concerns and making complaints about Ofsted', which is available from Ofsted's website: www.gov.uk/government/organisations/ofsted. If you would like Ofsted to send you a copy of the guidance, please telephone 0300 123 4234, or email enquiries@ofsted.gov.uk.

The Office for Standards in Education, Children's Services and Skills (Ofsted) regulates and inspects to achieve excellence in the care of children and young people, and in education and skills for learners of all ages. It regulates and inspects childcare and children's social care, and inspects the Children and Family Court Advisory Support Service (Cafcass), schools, colleges, initial teacher training, work-based learning and skills training, adult and community learning, and education and training in prisons and other secure establishments. It assesses council children's services, and inspects services for looked after children, safeguarding and child protection.
