

Childminder Report

Inspection date	26 July 2017
Previous inspection date	5 August 2016

The quality and standards of the early years provision	This inspection:	Met	3
	Previous inspection:	Requires Improvement

Summary of key findings for parents

The provision meets requirements

- The childminder knows how to review and monitor her provision to identify and make improvements for children. Since the last inspection, the childminder has addressed the actions. She understands how to meet the learning and development requirements.
- The childminder understands how to observe, assess and plan activities to engage children and help them move on to their next stage of learning. She understands how to complete the progress check for children aged between two and three years.
- The childminder understands her role and responsibilities in keeping children safe and protecting them from harm and extreme views. She is aware of the possible signs and knows the procedures to follow in the event of a concern to protect children's welfare.
- The childminder recognises the need to work in close partnership with parents and other professionals to ensure continuity in children's care and learning.
- The childminder understands the importance of encouraging positive behaviour to help children to respect and value others.

There were no children present when this inspection took place. The findings in this report are based on evidence gathered from discussions with those who care for the children and an inspection of the premises, equipment and relevant documentation. Where there are no children present, no judgement is made on the quality of the early years provision as there is no reliable evidence on which to assess its impact on children. The report states whether the provider continues to meet the requirements of registration.

Inspection activities

- The inspector spoke to the childminder about her understanding of the requirements of the early years foundation stage.
- The inspector discussed with the childminder how she intends to monitor children's development, plan for their learning and work in partnership with parents.
- The inspector looked at the space available for childminding, indoors and outdoors, and discussed the resources the childminder intends to provide.
- The inspector discussed the safeguarding and welfare requirements with the childminder and reviewed the childminder's and household members' suitability checks.
- The inspector discussed the childminder's policies and procedures with her, and viewed documentation that she will use when caring for children.
