Summary of key findings for parents

The provision meets requirements

- The manager, who is also the provider, has a good understanding of her responsibilities to safeguard children. She knows how to make sure that staff can identify child protection concerns and understand the appropriate reporting procedures to follow.
- Staff and the manager understand the importance of establishing partnerships with the schools children attend. They discuss how they will provide children with a range of activities that complements their school experiences.
- The manager knows how to support staff in continuing their professional development.
- The manager understands how to carry out self-evaluation to identify areas to strengthen. She knows how to use parents' and children's views to target improvements.
- Staff and the manager know how to use the key-person system to help meet children's emotional needs and to help them settle.
- The manager demonstrates an understanding of how to help children follow healthy lifestyles. She knows the importance of children following good hygiene practices and eating healthy food.

There were no children present when this inspection took place. The findings in this report are based on evidence gathered from discussions with those who care for the children and an inspection of the premises, equipment and relevant documentation. Where there are no children present, no judgement is made on the quality of the early years provision as there is no reliable evidence on which to assess its impact on children. The report states whether the provider continues to meet the requirements of registration.

Inspection activities

- The inspector discussed with the manager the support and activities they intend to provide for children.
- The inspector discussed requirements with the manager and staff, to check their knowledge and understanding of the early years foundation stage.
