Inspection date	4 October 2017
Previous inspection date	22 March 2013

The quality and standards of the early years provision	This inspection:	Met
	Previous inspection:	Good	2

Summary of key findings for parents

The provision meets requirements

- The childminder demonstrates a secure understanding of her responsibilities in protecting children from harm and neglect. She is aware of the signs and symptoms of abuse, and the procedures she must follow in the event of any concerns about a child in her care.
- The childminder has accessed training since her last inspection to update her understanding of changes in legislation. The childminder guides her assistant to ensure they are fully aware of how to safeguard children.
- The childminder understands the learning and development requirements. She describes how she will plan activities that will stimulate and challenge children's development. She describes how she will work with and share information with parents.
- The childminder describes how she will help children to learn about leading a healthy lifestyle, and teach them how to keep themselves safe in her home and when on outings in the local community.

There were no children present when this inspection took place. The findings in this report are based on evidence gathered from discussions with those who care for the children and an inspection of the premises, equipment and relevant documentation. Where there are no children present, no judgement is made on the quality of the early years provision as there is no reliable evidence on which to assess its impact on children. The report states whether the provider continues to meet the requirements of registration.
