Inspection date	19 October 2017
Previous inspection date	Not applicable

The quality and standards of the early years provision	This inspection:	Not met
	Previous inspection:	Not applicable

Summary of key findings for parents

The provision does not meet requirements

- The childminder does not have a clear understanding of the procedures to follow if an allegation is made against herself or a member of her household.
- The childminder does not know how to use information to assess children's progress.
- The childminder knows how to work in partnership with parents and other professionals to help promote consistent practices and continuity of care for children.
- The childminder demonstrates an effective understanding of how to support children who have special educational needs.
- The childminder demonstrates an awareness of supporting children's healthy lifestyles through exercise, healthy food and drink and appropriate hygiene procedures.
- The childminder understands the different ways in which children learn and knows how to use resources and activities required to support their ongoing development.
- The childminder understands the importance of supporting children's emotional well-being when moving to their next place in their learning, such as school.
- The childminder understands how to evaluate and continually develop her practice.

There were no children present when this inspection took place. The findings in this report are based on evidence gathered from discussions with those who care for the children and an inspection of the premises, equipment and relevant documentation. Where there are no children present, no judgement is made on the quality of the early years provision as there is no reliable evidence on which to assess its impact on children. The report states whether the provider continues to meet the requirements of registration.

What the setting needs to do to improve further

To meet the requirements of the early years foundation stage and the Childcare Register the provider must:
