Summary of key findings for parents

The provision meets requirements

- The childminder understands the early years foundation stage requirements. She knows the risks to children and correct procedures to follow to help safeguard their welfare.
- The childminder knows how to assess, plan and promote children's learning to help them make good progress in all areas.
- The childminder recognises the importance of helping children develop the skills they need for their future learning. For example, she knows how to help children develop their independence and communication skills and to learn positive behaviour and attitudes.
- The childminder recognises the importance of working in partnership with parents to support children's health, well-being and learning consistently.
- The childminder provides suitable premises and resources. She understands how to keep children safe and secure.
- The childminder recognises the value of professional development and evaluating her practice to improve outcomes for children.

There were no children present when this inspection took place. The findings in this report are based on evidence gathered from discussions with those who care for the children and an inspection of the premises, equipment and relevant documentation. Where there are no children present, no judgement is made on the quality of the early years provision as there is no reliable evidence on which to assess its impact on children. The report states whether the provider continues to meet the requirements of registration.
