Summary of key findings for parents

The provision meets requirements

- The childminder understands how to observe and monitor children's progress, to help her plan and provide a range of activities to promote children's learning.
- The childminder knows what to do if she has a concern about the welfare of a child. She understands how to keep children safe and undertakes regular assessments of the environment to help her minimise hazards.
- The childminder is committed to continuously improving outcomes for children and undertakes training to support her knowledge and skills.
- The childminder understands how to help children feel safe and secure, and prepare them for their future learning.
- The childminder recognises the importance of working with parents and other early years settings, to help her to meet children's individual care and learning needs.

There were no children present when this inspection took place. The findings in this report are based on evidence gathered from discussions with those who care for the children and an inspection of the premises, equipment and relevant documentation. Where there are no children present, no judgement is made on the quality of the early years provision as there is no reliable evidence on which to assess its impact on children. The report states whether the provider continues to meet the requirements of registration.

Inspection activities

- The inspector discussed with the childminder about how she plans to meet children's individual care needs.
- The inspector observed and discussed how the childminder would maintain a safe and welcoming environment for children.
- The inspector discussed the childminder's knowledge and understanding of safeguarding children.
- The inspector asked the childminder about how she plans to provide a range of activities and experiences for children to support their learning.

This inspection was carried out by Ofsted under sections 49 and 50 of the Childcare Act 2006 on the quality and standards of provision that is registered on the Early Years Register. The registered person must ensure that this provision complies with the statutory framework for children's learning, development and care, known as the early years foundation stage.

Any complaints about the inspection or the report should be made following the procedures set out in the guidance 'Complaints procedure: raising concerns and making complaints about Ofsted', which is available from Ofsted's website: www.gov.uk/government/organisations/ofsted. If you would like Ofsted to send you a copy of the guidance, please telephone 0300 123 4234, or email enquiries@ofsted.gov.uk.

The Office for Standards in Education, Children's Services and Skills (Ofsted) regulates and inspects to achieve excellence in the care of children and young people, and in education and skills for learners of all ages. It regulates and inspects childcare and children's social care, and inspects the Children and Family Court Advisory Support Service (Cafcass), schools, colleges, initial teacher training, work-based learning and skills training, adult and community learning, and education and training in prisons and other secure establishments. It assesses council children's services, and inspects services for looked after children, safeguarding and child protection.
