

Childminder Report

Inspection date	22 January 2018
Previous inspection date	7 February 2017

The quality and standards of the early years provision	This inspection:	Met	3
	Previous inspection:	Requires Improvement

Summary of key findings for parents

The provision meets requirements

- The childminder has a sound knowledge of child protection procedures. She fully understands her responsibility to identify and respond to any concerns about a child's welfare and keep them safe.
- The childminder knows how to observe and assess children's progress. She knows the importance of working with parents and other settings that children attend, to meet individual learning needs.
- The childminder shows understanding of how to help children to form secure relationships and develop their self-esteem. She understands how to develop children's confidence and independence so they are ready for starting school.
- The childminder understands the importance of self-evaluation to help her make improvements.
- The childminder understands how to help children learn to treat others with respect. She acknowledges the importance of providing an inclusive environment to help all children to feel happy and secure.

There were no children present when this inspection took place. The findings in this report are based on evidence gathered from discussions with those who care for the children and an inspection of the premises, equipment and relevant documentation. Where there are no children present, no judgement is made on the quality of the early years provision as there is no reliable evidence on which to assess its impact on children. The report states whether the provider continues to meet the requirements of registration.

Inspection activities

- The childminder checked the childminder's understanding of how to work in partnership with parents to meet children's individual needs.
- The inspector checked the childminder is meeting the early years foundation stage requirements.
- The inspector talked with the childminder about self-evaluation and sampled documentation available, including the first-aid certificate.
- The inspector checked the childminder's understanding of safeguarding and how to keep children safe in her home and on outings.
- The inspector viewed the areas of the premises that will be available to children.
