Summary of key findings for parents

The provision meets requirements

- The childminder demonstrates a suitable knowledge and understanding of her responsibilities to safeguard children. She knows the appropriate action to take if she has any concerns about a child's welfare.
- The childminder recognises the importance of working closely with parents and sharing information with them regarding all aspects of their children's care and learning.
- The childminder has a sound knowledge of how to assess children's learning. She understands how to review their progress regularly to enable her to plan appropriate experiences.
- The childminder recognises the importance of helping children to develop their self-care and independence skills. She understands how these help them to be ready for school.
- The childminder understands how to support children's healthy development by providing nutritious foods and daily opportunities for fresh air and physical exercise.

There were no children present when this inspection took place. The findings in this report are based on evidence gathered from discussions with those who care for the children and an inspection of the premises, equipment and relevant documentation. Where there are no children present, no judgement is made on the quality of the early years provision as there is no reliable evidence on which to assess its impact on children. The report states whether the provider continues to meet the requirements of registration.

Inspection activities

- The inspector had discussions with the childminder relating to her knowledge and understanding of the requirements for safeguarding and welfare, and learning and development.
- The inspector looked at relevant documentation and discussed the childminder's policies and procedures.
- The inspector checked evidence of the suitability and qualifications of the childminder and the suitability of persons living in the household.
- The inspector viewed all areas of the premises that the childminder uses when minding children.

This inspection was carried out by Ofsted under sections 49 and 50 of the Childcare Act 2006 on the quality and standards of provision that is registered on the Early Years Register. The registered person must ensure that this provision complies with the statutory framework for children's learning, development and care, known as the early years foundation stage.

Any complaints about the inspection or the report should be made following the procedures set out in the guidance 'Complaints procedure: raising concerns and making complaints about Ofsted', which is available from Ofsted's website: www.gov.uk/government/organisations/ofsted. If you would like Ofsted to send you a copy of the guidance, please telephone 0300 123 4234, or email enquiries@ofsted.gov.uk.

The Office for Standards in Education, Children's Services and Skills (Ofsted) regulates and inspects to achieve excellence in the care of children and young people, and in education and skills for learners of all ages. It regulates and inspects childcare and children's social care, and inspects the Children and Family Court Advisory Support Service (Cafcass), schools, colleges, initial teacher training, work-based learning and skills training, adult and community learning, and education and training in prisons and other secure establishments. It assesses council children's services, and inspects services for looked after children, safeguarding and child protection.
