

Childminder Report

Inspection date	22 January 2018
Previous inspection date	30 July 2014

The quality and standards of the early years provision	This inspection:	Met
	Previous inspection:	Good	2

Summary of key findings for parents

The provision meets requirements

- The childminder understands her responsibility to safeguard children. Both she and her assistant regularly update their safeguarding and paediatric first-aid training.
- Following the last inspection, the childminder now carries out risk assessments of her premises and the garden to ensure children stay safe.
- The childminder understands the importance of providing children with a healthy diet and how to promote their independence.
- The childminder knows how to use a range of effective and consistent strategies to promote children's positive behaviour.
- The childminder is aware of the importance of working in partnership with parents to meet children's needs. She understands how to use observations and assessments to monitor children's development, to help them make good progress.
- The childminder has a wide range of toys and resources easily accessible for any children she may care for, including resources reflecting differences in people and their cultures.

There were no children present when this inspection took place. The findings in this report are based on evidence gathered from discussions with those who care for the children and an inspection of the premises, equipment and relevant documentation. Where there are no children present, no judgement is made on the quality of the early years provision as there is no reliable evidence on which to assess its impact on children. The report states whether the provider continues to meet the requirements of registration.

Inspection activities

- The inspector viewed the premises and resources available for children.
- The inspector held discussions with the childminder in relation to her understanding of the safeguarding and welfare requirements.
- The inspector discussed with the childminder how she intends to observe, assess and monitor children's progress.
- The inspector looked at the suitability checks of adults living on the premises, the childminder's training records and a range of relevant documentation.
