

Childminder Report

Inspection date	9 February 2018
Previous inspection date	17 June 2015

The quality and standards of the early years provision	This inspection:	Met
	Previous inspection:	Met

Summary of key findings for parents

The provision meets requirements

- The childminder knows how to evaluate her practice and seek the views of parents and other professionals to help identify areas for improvement.
- The childminder acknowledges the importance of building strong partnerships with parents and carers and to share information about their children's progress.
- The childminder knows how children learn and develop. She is aware of the importance of monitoring their progress and finding out about what they can do from parents to help establish their starting points.
- The childminder is aware of the procedures to follow to safeguard children. She understands the importance of keeping up to date with new legislation.
- The childminder understands the importance of teaching children about good hygiene routines and setting clear boundaries to help guide their behaviour.
- The childminder recognises her role in teaching children to respect and value others.
- The childminder knows of the importance of keeping her knowledge and skills up to date and to ensure that her assistant is kept well informed of any changes in legislation.

There were no children present when this inspection took place. The findings in this report are based on evidence gathered from discussions with those who care for the children and an inspection of the premises, equipment and relevant documentation. Where there are no children present, no judgement is made on the quality of the early years provision as there is no reliable evidence on which to assess its impact on children. The report states whether the provider continues to meet the requirements of registration.

Inspection activities

- The inspector viewed the areas of the home used by children.
- The inspector viewed relevant documentation, including paediatric first-aid qualifications and public liability insurance.
- The inspector asked the childminder questions throughout the inspection to establish her understanding of the statutory requirements.
- The inspector viewed a range of relevant policies that the childminder has in place and had discussions about how they would be implemented.
