

Childminder Report

Inspection date	22 February 2018
Previous inspection date	16 March 2015

The quality and standards of the early years provision	This inspection:	Met
	Previous inspection:	Met

Summary of key findings for parents

The provision meets requirements

- The childminder understands how to provide interesting activities and experiences to develop children's learning and development. She knows how to monitor children's progress to assess for any gaps in their learning.
- The childminder demonstrates a secure understanding of how to keep children safe and secure. She knows the procedures to follow should she have any concerns about a child's welfare and completes daily risk assessments to keep children safe.
- The childminder understands the importance of working with parents and other settings or agencies the children may attend to provide continuity of care and learning.
- The childminder demonstrates a commitment to making improvements. For example, she has completed training to update her knowledge.
- The childminder understands the importance of providing an inclusive environment and promoting children's good behaviour.

There were no children present when this inspection took place. The findings in this report are based on evidence gathered from discussions with those who care for the children and an inspection of the premises, equipment and relevant documentation. Where there are no children present, no judgement is made on the quality of the early years provision as there is no reliable evidence on which to assess its impact on children. The report states whether the provider continues to meet the requirements of registration.

Inspection activities

- The inspector viewed all areas used by the children in the childminder's home.
- The inspector viewed policies and documents used by the childminder when she is childminding.
- The inspector discussed how the childminder implements the safeguarding and welfare requirements.
- The inspector discussed with the childminder how she intends to assess and monitor children's learning.
- The inspector spoke to the childminder about how she evaluates and improves her service.
