

Childminder Report

Inspection date	9 March 2018
Previous inspection date	Not applicable

The quality and standards of the early years provision	This inspection:	Met
	Previous inspection:	Not applicable

Summary of key findings for parents

The provision meets requirements

- The childminder has a secure understanding of how children learn and develop. She knows how to make observations of children and how to monitor their progress. The childminder has a good understanding of how to identify areas where a child might need additional support.
- The childminder fully understands her responsibility to safeguard children. She knows the procedures to follow if she has a concern about a child and she has kept up to date with current safeguarding issues.
- The childminder knows how to support children's emotional well-being and how to encourage children's positive behaviour.
- The childminder knows how to encourage children's independence skills to help them prepare for the move to school and other settings.
- The childminder understands the importance of reflecting on her practice in partnership with parents.

There were no children present when this inspection took place. The findings in this report are based on evidence gathered from discussions with those who care for the children and an inspection of the premises, equipment and relevant documentation. Where there are no children present, no judgement is made on the quality of the early years provision as there is no reliable evidence on which to assess its impact on children. The report states whether the provider continues to meet the requirements of registration.

Inspection activities

- The inspector held discussions with the childminder to establish her knowledge and understanding.
- The inspector looked at areas of the childminder's home used for childminding.
- The inspector looked at relevant documentation and evidence of the childminder's qualifications.
