The quality and standards of the early years provision	This inspection:	Met
	Previous inspection:	Not applicable

Summary of key findings for parents

The provision meets requirements

- The team leader and her staff are experienced in caring for children who have special educational needs (SEN) and/or disabilities. Staff know how to provide suitable activities that cater for children's individual needs, ages and interests.
- The team leader knows how she and the staff team are encouraged to keep their childcare knowledge and practice up to date. Staff understand how to keep children safe and protect them from harm.
- The team leader knows how she and the staff team are encouraged to keep their childcare knowledge and practice up to date. Staff understand how to keep children safe and protect them from harm.
- The team leader and her staff demonstrate that they fully understand the benefits and importance of partnership working. They describe a consistent approach towards children's care and learning through developing relationships with parents, carers and other professionals involved in children's lives.

There were no children present when this inspection took place. The findings in this report are based on evidence gathered from discussions with those who care for the children and an inspection of the premises, equipment and relevant documentation. Where there are no children present, no judgement is made on the quality of the early years provision as there is no reliable evidence on which to assess its impact on children. The report states whether the provider continues to meet the requirements of registration.

Inspection activities

- The inspector spoke with the team leader and the deputy throughout the inspection.
- The inspector viewed the areas of the club that are used by children.
- The inspector discussed with the team leader how they plan to meet the requirements of the early years foundation stage and promote children's progress.
- The inspector checked a range of documentation, including policies and the suitability checks of all staff working on the premises.

Playden registered in 2015. It operates from a centre in High Wycombe, Buckinghamshire. It offers care from 9.30am until 12.30pm and 1.30pm until 4.30pm on Saturdays only, throughout the whole year. It closes only on bank holiday weekends and for one staff training weekend. There are six staff working directly with the children, one of whom holds an appropriate childcare qualification at level 4.

This inspection was carried out by Ofsted under sections 49 and 50 of the Childcare Act 2006 on the quality and standards of provision that is registered on the Early Years Register. The registered person must ensure that this provision complies with the statutory framework for children's learning, development and care, known as the early years foundation stage.

Any complaints about the inspection or the report should be made following the procedures set out in the guidance 'Complaints procedure: raising concerns and making complaints about Ofsted', which is available from Ofsted's website: www.gov.uk/government/organisations/ofsted.
