The provision meets requirements

- The manager and her deputy manager understand how to keep children safe. They know the procedures to follow to report any concerns about children's welfare.
- Managers know how to plan activities that are engaging and enjoyable. They understand how to provide a range of stimulating and exciting resources that meets children's interests.
- Managers understand the importance of working with school staff to share information about children's well-being. They know how to work in partnership with parents and carers to ensure children's time at the club is positive and enjoyable.
- Managers know how to promote children's self-esteem and personal well-being. They understand the importance of teaching children how to respect others. Managers know how to support children's behaviour and their understanding of the world around them.
- The managers understand how to include the views of staff, parents and children in evaluating the club's strengths and priorities for improvement.

There were no children present when this inspection took place. The findings in this report are based on evidence gathered from discussions with those who care for the children and an inspection of the premises, equipment and relevant documentation. Where there are no children present, no judgement is made on the quality of the early years provision as there is no reliable evidence on which to assess its impact on children. The report states whether the provider continues to meet the requirements of registration.

- The inspector held discussions with the manager and the deputy manager to assess their understanding of the early years foundation stage.
- The inspector had a tour of the premises and looked at all areas that are intended to be used by children.
